

Chuck V. Loring, MBA, CFRE
Senior Partner
Loring, Sternberg, & Associates

Chuck V. Loring, MBA, CFRE is the senior partner of the Fort Lauderdale and Indianapolis-based firm of Loring, Sternberg, & Associates, which provides fundraising and governance consulting services to nonprofits.

Chuck is a past president of the Indiana Chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals, is a Certified Fund Raising Executive, and holds a bachelor's degree in communications from the University of California, Santa Barbara (UCSB) and an MBA from the Marshall School of Business at the University of Southern California.

Chuck has helped hundreds of local and regional nonprofits across the country improve their governance and such prominent national charities as Special Olympics, Second Harvest Food Banks, Boys and Girls Clubs of America, The Susan Komen Foundation, The Alzheimer's Association, Easter Seals, and The Smithsonian National Museum of The American Indian.

Each year Chuck conducts dozens of training programs for funders, community foundations and nonprofit centers interested in good governance. His repeat clients include The Hartford Community Foundation for Public Giving, The Gulf Coast Community Foundation of Venice, The Nonprofit Center of Northeast Florida, The Porter County Community Foundation, The Cape Cod Community Foundation, The Community Foundation of Broward County, The Foundation Center in New York City, The Philanthropy Center at Rollins College, and the New Hampshire Center for Nonprofits, to name only a few.