

Alan McIntyre
Senior Partner
Oliver Wyman

Alan McIntyre is a Senior Partner at the global management consulting firm of Oliver Wyman. During his nearly 25 year career with the firm he has held a number of roles including Managing Partner for North America and Chief Operating Officer. Alan is also a past Chair and current member of Oliver Wyman's Inclusion and Diversity Council. Alan focuses on consulting to major financial institutions in North America, but has also led much of Oliver Wyman's pro bono work for the arts community, including a number of projects with leading symphony orchestras and the League of American Orchestras.

Alan holds an MBA from IMD Business School in Lausanne Switzerland, an M. Phil in Finance from Cambridge University and an MA in Economics and Philosophy from Glasgow University.

Outside of Oliver Wyman, Alan is Vice Chairman of the Stamford Symphony Orchestra, Patron of the Institute of Contemporary Scotland, a 'Global Scot' business ambassador for the Scottish Government, a film producer, a columnist for a leading Scottish cultural magazine, and an avid US Civil War historian. Alan holds both UK and US citizenship and lives with his wife and four children in Darien CT.

Namita Desai
Consultant
Oliver Wyman

Namita Desai is a Consultant at Oliver Wyman with broad experience across industries including aviation manufacturing, banking, and health care. Her work at Oliver Wyman has involved market entry analysis, risk assessment, strategic regulatory response, and employment policy. Prior to joining Oliver Wyman, Namita worked primarily in antifraud and other financial infrastructure governance.

Namita served as project manager for the Subscription Model study which Oliver Wyman conducted in partnership with the League of American Orchestras.

League of American Orchestras