

Links for the Reconnecting Project of the Central Ohio Symphony

Reconnecting composition program notes

<http://centralohiosymphony.org/reconnecting-1/reconnecting-program-notes/>

Reconnecting Music Outline

<http://centralohiosymphony.org/reconnecting-1/reconnecting-music-outline/>

Remo HealthRHYTHMS Therapeutic Drumming Links

<http://www.remo.com/portal/hr/index.html>

<http://www.remo.com/portal/pages/hr/research/index.html>

The Central Ohio Symphony

<http://centralohiosymphony.org/>

Reconnecting concert performance on YouTube

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=K1cWM68LawM>

Additional Links to Projects Featuring Music and Rehabilitation

Our Voices Count: The Potential Impact of Strength-based Music Programs in the Juvenile Justice System.

http://www.carnegiehall.org/uploadedFiles/Resources\_and\_Components/PDF/WMI/NeAreport\_Our\_Voices\_Count.pdf

May the Songs I Have Written Speak for Me: An Exploration of the Potential of Music in Juvenile Justice

http://www.carnegiehall.org/uploadedFiles/Resources\_and\_Components/PDF/WMI/MaytheSongsIHaveWrittenSpeakforMe.pdf

A film about the partnership between New York City's Department of Probation and the Weill Music Institute at Carnegie Hall

<http://www.carnegiehall.org/NeONArts/>

A film about the rejuvenating and rehabilitative effects of music in a maximum-security prison. A partnership between Sing Sing Correctional Facility and Weill Music Institute of Carnegie Hall.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=TBYRMgPny-k>

Resources on music in prisons and in rehabilitation following incarceration in the United Kingdom and US partners: Irene Taylor Trust/ Music in Prisons:

<http://irenetaylortrust.com/>